

The daily evidence digest collates recently released reports and evidence – provision of these links does not imply endorsement nor recommendation.

Public health measures for COVID-19, aspirin in hospitalised COVID-19 patients, leadership development

Peer reviewed journals featured:

- A systematic review on the effectiveness of public health measures in reducing COVID-19 incidence and mortality, and SARS-CoV-2 transmission here and associated editorial here
- A randomised controlled trial of aspirin in hospitalised COVID-19 patients (RECOVERY) here and associated commentary here
- Consensus recommendations for women with gynaecological cancer who received non-standard care because of disruptions during COVID-19 here
- Commentary on:
  - Lessons learned about leadership development in healthcare here
  - Redefining the clinical leader of the future here
  - COVID-19 caseload in the UK here

Letters and correspondence discussed:

- An observational study on access to COVID-19 vaccine trials in high-, middle-, and low-income countries here and associated commentary here
- Public health concern about COVID-19 chronic olfactory dysfunction here

News and blogs

- Antimicrobial misuse in Americas sees drug resistant infections surge here
- Overcrowding and long delays in A&E caused over 4000 deaths last year in England here
- Counting the neurological cost of COVID-19 here
- Europe's COVID-19 death toll could rise by hundreds of thousands here

Click here to subscribe to the daily evidence digest.